Did you ever see or hear of any more delightful weather anywhere than is being enjoyed in this vicinity during the mid-summer season?

For home grown nursery stock, see A. C. Wallace. Nursery located one mile north of Farmington on the J. W. Calverd place.

Dr. F. S. Weber left yesterday for California, where he will join his wife and daughter, who are visiting there, and expects to remain several weeks.

New classes will be organized at the Chillicothe Business College August 2nd. Students entering then will be at a big advantage over those who wait until September.

Blackberries are fine and abundant now. Even the wild berries are delicious, and most every road in this vicinity is lined with heavily laden bushes.

S. E. Haltom, General Auctioneer, Cartwell, Mo., Pedigreed sales a specialty. References furnished; satisfaction guaranteed. Write for dates before advertising sale. 30-4t.

Senator Spencer was in Farmington yesterday afternoon glad-handing the people in that hale and happy way that is characteristic of the man. His reputation as the Republican candidate is almost a foregone conclusion.

Why look for better mid-summer climate when the finest to be found in all the world is right here at home. Better enjoy home pleasures while the chances are that the weather is hotter where you may contemplate going.

The Telegraph students of the Chillicothe Business College are elated over the big wage hike given all railroad employees last week. This increases the salaries of operators $25.00 per month and makes the minimum wage $140.00.

Bart L. Watkins and Miss Jessie Pearl Woods were quietly married on Saturday afternoon at the home of William Good, by J. M. Bailey. The contracting parties are two of Farmington's best young people and will make their home here.

The many friends of Chas. McClinck, who underwent an operation recently at St. Luke's hospital in St. Louis, will be pleased to learn that he is sufficiently recovered to have been removed to the home of his son, Arthur. He is recovering as quickly as can be expected.

Mrs. Julia M. Rocheford, of Columbia, Assistant State Leader of Home Demonstration Work, spent Wednesday in Farmington inspecting the work at this point, which she found to be in excellent condition. She left yesterday for the north part of the State.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave the men of that church a splendid and enjoyable supper Tuesday evening on the lawn at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Harlan. The supper was the result of an attendance contest of the members of the Bible class of the Sunday school, in which the men proved to be the winners for the past quarter.

While the rain and heavy electrical storm was in progress Saturday afternoon, lightning struck and set on fire the barn on the place of Louie Horton, about four miles north of Farmington. The flames made rapid headway and in a very short time not only the barn, but its entire contents, were reduced to ashes. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Horton, as practically all the contents were valuable. Among the things destroyed was 21 loads of hay, considerable farm machinery and harness.

Robert E. Lee (Bob) Marrs, Democratic candidate for State Auditor, has a record for economy and efficiency which justifies his nomination and election. A vote for Bob Marrs, Tuesday, August 3rd, will be a vote for economical and efficient government.

Attention is called to the announcement of the Southeast Missouri State Teachers College, at Cape Girardeau, on this page of this issue of The Times. This announcement is of great importance to all young people, whether or not they may desire to prepare themselves for teaching, as it offers several complete courses of study that may prove to be most advantageous.

Democrats of Southwest Missouri have just cause to be proud of their candidate for State Auditor. In offering Robert E. Lee (Bob) Marrs, of Jasper county, they propose a candidate whose record for economy and efficiency in public office highly recommends him to the Democracy of the State. Democrats of Southwest Missouri will be practically unanimous in their support of Bob Marrs.

The annual General Assembly of the Methodist Church, South, at the splendid grounds at Arcadia Heights, closed Sunday night. It proved to be the most largely attended, as well as the most successful assemblies ever held on those grounds. The Baptist General Assembly will open next Monday. These grounds are near Iron-ton, on one of the loftiest heights in that fair country.

While driving through the grounds of State Hospital No. 4 the other day The Times editor had the pleasure of meeting, shaking hands and talking with C. G. Vandover, the popular secretary of that institution. While he is still confined to a chair, and will afterwards be forced to use crutches for several weeks, before his limb will be in condition to be fitted with an artificial foot, he is in good spirits and getting along very well.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church, South, gave a social Tuesday evening on the lawn at the home of Miss Byrd Watts. A number of invited guests were present, and more than a hundred were in attendance. A splendid program was rendered and it proved to be a most delightful affair. Many chairs and benches were placed on the lawn, which was lighted with incandescent lights. Punch was served throughout the evening, and there were refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Murrill, of Desloge, are visiting in Detroit, Mich., where they have five married children living. In a recent letter to his brother, J. W., of Farmington, Mr. Murrill describes the automobile town as being some hustling place, in description of which he said that for two days he had been on the same side of the street awaiting an opportunity to cross over. W. B. admits that he is about forty-three years behind the times, while J. W. thinks he is sixty-three years in arrears, which is W. B.'s age. Anyway he says they are thoroughly enjoying themselves in trying to "catch up."

Judge Henry S. Priest, who is running for the U. S. Senatorial nomination of the Democratic ticket, made a speech at St. Genevieve Monday evening. Some of those who heard him, while admitting his right to run for any office he chose, did question his right to run as a Democratic candidate, as his speech failed to exhibit the most remote indication of Democracy. He did not attempt to endorse the present Democratic administration, failed even to mention President Wilson's name, but did announce his unswerving opposition to the League of Nations, which he denominated a "League of Nations." But even that was not original. It has been woefully overworked by every opponent of the League since the phrase was originally coined by a German. If it were possible for Priest to secure the nomination he seeks, he would be buried so deep under Democratic votes in November that the Lord would never be able to find him. But there is no chance for such a calamity overtaking the party.

THIS YEAR-- OF ALL YEARS

Is one season when no American housewife can afford to have any "FAILURES" in her canning.

Sugar supplies seem limited--fruits are scarce in some territories. Every full jar set on the shelf in the fruit cellar will be like so much gold next winter.

Have the best jar available--the E. Z. Seal jar--glass lid-- which has stood all temperature tests.
